ACCOMMODATIONS

Nestled within the beauty of Mayakoba's winding lagoons and tropical mangrove jungle, Rosewood Mayakoba's 129 suites and exclusive collection of Private Residences offer the perfect retreat for those seeking a luxurious escape. Incorporating locally sourced materials and bespoke furnishings crafted by Mexican artisans, these generous suites embody the region's Mayan heritage. Featuring expansive interiors, each including butler service, spacious bathrooms, rain showers, and private outdoor terraces from which to admire the resort's awe-inspiring natural surroundings, our accommodations have everything necessary to create an elevated luxury experience.

SUSTAINABILITY / SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Rosewood Mayakoba is proud to support Centro Educativo K'iin Beh, a school built in 2017 for the children of its employees and local youth, located 15 minutes from the luxury resort. Serving 400-plus students, the school offers bilingual, full-time education for children in elementary and middle school.

Rosewood Mayakoba is committed to fostering conservation of the environment. The resort was built to the highest ecological standards, offering indulgence with awareness, and has received Preferred By Nature Certification and is a Seafood Watch Partner of the Monterey Bay Aquarium. From energy and water conservation to responsible culinary practices, Rosewood Mayakoba is an eco leader in hospitality: committed, conscious, and respectful of the environment and community.

MEETINGS AND EVENTS

The resort features 11 distinctive indoor and outdoor venues to host your most important events. Centrally located within the resort, the indoor meeting spaces Palma Real, Palma Areca, and Palma Kuka feature impeccably appointed interiors and offer customizable floorplans representing a combined 2,948 square feet.

For those looking to embrace the tropical beauty of Mayakoba, the resort's outdoor venues include the incredibly versatile Aqui Me Quedo, Lagoon Lawn, Agave Deck, Beach, and Casa del Lago Pool Deck, totaling over 44,000 square feet. No matter where you host your event, our dedicated professionals provide logistical and creative support to ensure everything is executed flawlessly.

GROUPS

The award-winning ultra-luxury resort is the perfect destination to host your incentive program, board retreat, or private gathering. Rosewood Mayakoba offers a range of exceptional dining options, flexible indoor and outdoor private venues, multiple swimming pools, an award-winning island spa, championship golf, tennis, and an endless array of activities and curated experiences.

SPA AND FITNESS

Discover a sense of place at the award-winning Sense, A Rosewood Spa. Located within the peaceful Riviera Maya sanctuary, this soul-soothing paradise offers transformative wellness treatments and experiences to help you achieve total body serenity. Relax, unwind, and rejuvenate with a bespoke treatment in one of twelve available treatment rooms, or stay active while on retreat with the spacious on-site fitness center with state-of-the-art Technogym equipment and a full range of cardio and resistance equipment including TRX and BOSU functional training accessories.
